Not only does the 'leaf fish' look like a leaf, but ① it also imitates the movement of a drifting leaf underwater. Its hunting technique is not to swiftly pursue its victim, but to wait for ② it. Hanging at an angle in the water, the leaf fish is carried along by the currents until ③ it comes near a smaller fish. Then, ④ it seizes the unsuspecting prey with a lightning-fast snap of the jaws, and swallows the prey down head first. At close range the rapid opening of the leaf fish's large jaws enables ⑤ it to suck in the unfortunate individual very easily.

Thank you for sending your poems to this publishing house. I have had the opportunity to look them over, and I feel that they show considerable promise, despite your youth and lack of experience in this genre. There is still much room for development, however, and I am afraid they are not yet appropriate for publishing in any of our current poetry journals. You indicate in your cover letter that you intend to follow a literary career. Please allow me to offer my best wishes for your future literary efforts.

To be a mathematician you don't need an expensive laboratory. The typical equipment of a mathematician ① is a blackboard and chalk. It is better to do mathematics on a blackboard ② than on a piece of paper because chalk is easier to erase, and mathematical research is often filled with mistakes. One more thing you need to do is to join a club ③ devotes to mathematics. Not many mathematicians can work alone; they need to talk about what they are doing. If you want to be a mathematician, you had better ④ expose your new ideas to the criticism of others. It is so easy to include hidden assumptions ⑤ that you do not see but that are obvious to others.

People tend to stick to their first impressions, even if they are wrong. Suppose you mention the name of your new neighbor to a friend. "Oh, I know him," your friend replies. "He seems nice at first, but it's all an act." Perhaps this evaluation is groundless. The neighbor may have changed since your friend knew him, or perhaps your friend's judgment is simply unfair. Whether the judgment is accurate or not, once you accept it, it will probably influence the way you respond to the neighbor. Even if this neighbor were a saint, you would be likely to interpret his behavior in ways that _____.

26. A common mistake in talking to celebrities is to assume that they don't know much about anything else except their occupations. In fact, the movie business and the athletic world are full of intelligent, educated, and informed men and women who are interested and involved in a wide variety of activities and causes. Yet they are asked only about acting or sports. If you happen to know about the celebrity's 'extracurricular' interest, you might find he or she will speak to you about it much more freely than about his or her _____. For example, ask Paul Newman, the famous actor, about his charity work with kids. 3점

The story starts in the world of Homer, where the stormy skies and the dark seas were ruled by the mythical gods. Every advance in human understanding since then has been made by brave individuals daring to step into the unknown darkness and to break free from accepted ways of thinking. Most of those steps were small and difficult, but a few were brilliant and beautiful. As Gustave Flaubert wrote, "Among those who go to sea there are the explorers who discover new worlds, adding continents to the Earth and stars to the heavens; they are the masters, the great, the eternally shining." It is those explorers, through their unceasing trial and error, who have paved the way for us to follow.

From there they were taken to Arizona and were reassembled by workers in the Arizona desert.

In the early 1960s, London Bridge was in trouble. Cars, trucks, and buses were too heavy for it, and the bridge was sinking into the Thames river. (①) London city officials wanted to build a new bridge, and a businessman named Robert McCulloch decided to buy the old bridge and move it to Arizona. (②) Workers disassembled the bridge in 1968, numbering the bricks, and sent them to Los Angeles. (③) The bridge was finally completed in 1971. (④) However, McCulloch knew he needed more than a famous bridge to attract people to Lake Havasu City, so he created an English village with typical English shops and restaurants. (⑤) Today, London Bridge is one of Arizona's biggest attractions.

People who run sports camps think of the children first. They do their best to create enjoyable and protective environments in which the children feel comfortable and safe. Unfortunately, some sports coaches in the camps occasionally become over-enthusiastic in their desire to help the children excel. As a result, they put pressure on them to perform at high levels, win at all costs, and keep playing, even when they get hurt. This 'no pain, no gain' approach is extremely stressful, and leads to unnecessary injuries. Parents should therefore take care when they send their children to a sports camp, and should talk with the sports coaches to see if they will respect the children's wishes.

In choosing the most (A) sports camp for their children, parents should make sure that the coaches have (B) attitudes to children.
